

Cyber bullying role play

Role A

You are a parent.

There have been several episodes of cyberbullying at your child's school. Photos and videos have been posted online and phones have been used for bullying. Your child is suffering from this. Teachers have also been targeted. A meeting is taking place at the school.

You are a parents' rep on the board of administration of the school. You want radical action to be taken as the victims are very unhappy. You think the school should ban phones, etc.

Make your points. Maybe you will change your mind.

Cyber bullying role play

Role B

You are a teacher.

There have been several episodes of cyberbullying at your school. Photos and videos have been posted online and phones have been used for bullying. Some of your pupils are suffering from this. Teachers have also been targeted. A meeting is taking place at the school.

You are a teachers' rep. You think that a complete ban on phones is impossible.

You are a strong supporter of use at the Internet at school.

Make your points. Maybe you will change your mind.

Cyber bullying role play

Role C

You are a pupil.

There have been several episodes of cyberbullying at your school. Photos and videos have been posted online and phones have been used for bullying. Some pupils are suffering from this. Teachers have also been targeted. A meeting is taking place at the school.

Some people want to completely ban phones in school. You love your phone.

Make your points. Maybe you will change your mind.